

Summer Compensation

During the summer, eligible academic-year faculty may earn up to a maximum of one-third of the nine-month annual salary rate as additional compensation. See Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost Breslauer's letter of 2/19/09 for restrictions on summer compensation from Federal sources.

The summer period is considered to be a total of 57 working days; working days are Monday - Friday. The summer period is between the last day of the Spring Semester and the first day of the Fall Semester. Applicable policy and table information can be found in APM 600 - Appendix 1.
